[e1] A bank bailout is very, very costly.
[e2] For instance, the taxpayer stood in for the failed bank 'Hypo Real Estate' with a three-figure billion amount.
[e3] That's why we should not allow any additional bank rescues.
[e4] The politicians are trying to appease us with the fact that actually only a tiny amount of all that money was really spent.
[e5] But even with that tiny amount you could do a lot of good elsewhere.
